

Search

Document object model (DOM) is a programming interface for HTML and XML documents that allows users to create, manipulate, or delete the element from the document. It defines the logical structure of documents and the way a document is accessed and manipulated.

Browser Object Model (BOM) is a browser-specific convention referring to all the objects exposed by the web browser. The BOM allows JavaScript to “interact with” the browser. The window object represents a browser window and all its corresponding features.